Sponsors "rent" camel for the event. They decorate the camel and get them ready for the race. Real money is exchanged for 'camel bucks'. Camel bucks are then wagered on your favorite camel. Camels are raced in groups of six. Large dice are thrown for numbers. If the numbers 2 and 4 turn up, camels in slots 2 and 4 move one space ahead. The first camel to reach the tenth space is the 'winner'. Winning odds are computed pari-mutuel style, just like at a horse race. Winners are paid in camel bucks, which can be exchanged for cash at the end of the night.

Come join the fun. See video of an actual race at https://youtu.be/s\_kC7fmK3hk
